

MASSACHUSETTS INTERFAITH POWER & LIGHT'S 2011 ANNUAL MEETING AND CELEBRATION

A Greener Faith

SUNDAY MAY 1, 2011
1:00 PM TO 5:00 PM
THE BOSTON SYNAGOGUE
55 MARTHA ROAD
BOSTON, MA 02114-1206
(IN CHARLES RIVER PARK)

Keynote Speaker Roger S. Gottlieb, Worcester Polytechnic Institute Professor and author of: A Greener Faith, Religious Environmentalism and Our Planet's Future and The Spirituality of Resistance.

- ◆ Why it is important for religious people to be environmentalists;
- ◆ How religious communities can contribute to the environmental movement.

Concurrent Workshops on:

- ◆ Make Your Sacred Space Sustainable Space, led by Tom Nutt-Powell
- ◆ Finding the Funds to Go Green, led by James D. Nail
- ◆ Education for the Transformation of the Congregation, led by Fran Ludwig

Light refreshments. Free will donation.

Boston Synagogue is located near the Science Park station of the MBTA Green Line. For directions, check <http://bostonsynagogue.org/directions.html>. For more information, go to www.MIPandL.org. Or contact Vince Maraventano at vince@MIPandL.org or 617-244-0755

Endorsed by Mass. Conference, UCC Environmental Ministries

Co-sponsored by:

